

Tartars Finish Third in 1950 Bay League Standings

SCOOTER STOPPED . . . Scooter Dandoy, who has been thrilling Tartar fans all year with his sensational break-aways and long runs, was virtually stopped by the strong Ingleswood defense. Here, he does a turn at stopping an Ingleswood sprint star. Teaming up with Charlie Camou (on the ground) and Frank Schmidt (No. 13), he stops Stewart who had been racing off yards like it was a track meet. (Herald photo)

Tartars Bow to Inglewood In Bay League Closer Here

King football takes a back seat to basketball on the local scene this week as the round ball replaces the oblate spheroid. In the minds of the city's athletes — old and young. Adding considerable to the zeal with which the local gentry turned their talents toward basketball was the resounding 19-0 defeat the Tartar grid-men suffered at the hands of a well-trained Inglewood eleven on the local turf last Friday evening.

The Tartars started the game after receiving the opening kickoff like they were going to march right on to another upset, but any hopes that were built up were short-lived.

A pair of Inglewood ball packers named Carmichael and Stewart started romping when the Sentinels got the ball and the Tartars were in hot water from then on.

BULLDOZER
Carmichael, a fullback, did a nice job of bulldozing, while Stewart turned out to be one of the speediest backs to show up on the local scene this year. Between the two, the Sentinels had a very strong offense.

All-in-all, the Tartar season was nothing to bring shame to any of the local fans. The Tartars finished in a dead heat for third place with Redondo Beach. Having beaten Redondo when the two met, theoretically it gives the Tartars a slight preference in listing in the third-place spot.

Santa Monica, of course, won the league title. They went through the year undefeated, although Redondo rose up and gave them a whale of a scare week before last.

Pirates Clinch Eastern-Marine League Crown

Narbonne jumped into fourth spot in Eastern-Marine league standings Friday while San Pedro was cinching the championship by racking up their fifth straight victory with Bell the immediate victim, 20-0.

The Gauchos saved fifth-place Bell meet Friday in the season finale to decide the possible occupant of the fourth spot. With a win, Narbonne has an outside chance for third ahead of Jordan.

Two long touchdown runs were the highlight Friday night as the Pirates took Bell into camp at Daniels Field. Both the runs, nearly the length of the field, were made by San Pedro's Jim Decker on punt returns. It was more a game than the score would indicate as San Pedro was leading by a bare 8 points early in the fourth quarter.

In other league tussles, the Gauchos downed Gardena, 38-13, and South Gate's Ramblers topped Gardena, 27-0.

Basketball Season Opens Here in Another 10 Days

Varsity Opens Against Huntington Beach There

Tartar casabamen will hit the hardwoods against Westchester here a week from Friday night, December 1, in the first of 78 games scheduled for the four high school teams this winter. The C and D teams will open here against Westchester on the local floor, the first game beginning at 2 p.m.

First varsity game of the season will get under way later the same day when the A and B teams travel to Huntington Beach for a match scheduled to begin at 7 p. m. there.

LOOP OPENER
Bay League competition will open January 5 when the C and D teams entertain Santa Monica here in the afternoon, and the A and B teams pay a visit to the Samohi tribe in the beach city that evening.

The season's annual "big" one to settle once and for all the undisputed championship of the Greater Torrance-Lomita area will be played here January 2 (the day after January 1, if you know what I mean). On that day the Gauchos from Narbonne High will come into the city from the hinterlands and challenge the Tartars' right to the area championship. The Tartars brought it back from Lomita last year.
